Kiruna, Jukkasjarvi

The City

Welcome to Kiruna, the beating heart of Swedish Lapland, home of the northern lights.

Here, you will find world famous Icehotel, and the largest underground iron ore mine in the world!

The forests and mountains around Kiruna provides the perfect environment for an avalanche of different winter activities, from skiing to snowmobiling

The small village of Jukkasjarvi, is located 17k m from Kiruna center, and is a home to Icehotel.

A successful tourism industry has grown up around the hotel and nowadays Jukkasjarvi is a center of Sami culture, and restaurants.

Much of Jukkasjarvi charm remains in fact, as you head away from the Icehotel and towards the village's beautiful wooden church, parts of which date back to 1607.

Icehotel

Where to sleep

One of a kind - unique and spectacular hotel located in Jukkasjarvi in northern Sweden.

The Icehotel offers rooms entirely made out of sculptured ice or 'warm rooms' the classic hotel rooms. Since the 'icerooms' hold temperature between -5 to -8 degrees, it is recommended to stay one night in 'iceroom' and next night in traditional room. After a night spent in the cold room guest will enjoy hot lingoberry juice and a sauna session before the breakfast.

Upon arrival guest will have an opportunity to see the entire hotel and hear about the history of the hotel during 30 min. guided tour by hotel staff.

During the stay guests will try traditional local cuisine at the Icehotel restaurant. All dishes are made of locally produced ingredients. In order to experience Sami culture guest will also join a dinner at the authentic Sami tent.

To accomplish the evening guest will relax at the ice bar enjoying cocktails served in glasses made of ice.

Hotel area is popular for local winter activities like dog sledding, reindeer sledding, and snowmobile tours.
