FutureMed S.p.A. is a representative, importer and distributor of products, services and technologies for healthcare and medicine.

We have a main focus on advanced medical devices.

FutureMed is a recently created sister company of Vital and Young S.p.A., which is a manufacturer of nutraceuticals that has been established in Chile since 2012.

Vital & Young focuses on developing formulas to treat specific chronic health conditions.

The products are distributed through a network of 400 pharmacies and 30 private healthcare centers in Chile.
