

Canada Immigration for International Students

Canada is a one-stop destination for international students to pursue their education. The Canada immigration process is different for students, skilled workers and employees. The immigration process for Canada depends entirely on the immigration program you applied.

To pursue your education in Canada, a study permit is mandatory for international students. The study permit is not a student visa. A study permit let you stay in Canada until the completion of the course. It is valid until the course completion with an extra 90 days.

After completion of the course, students can apply for Canada PR, work permit or extend the student permit. Students can choose whether they want to stay in Canada or leave the country. You need to apply for a student permit before coming to Canada. You should also get a WES evaluation report and other paperwork to complete the Canada immigration process.
